

Alternative

Assignments

Offer students alternative ways to express understanding.

Increase student engagement and opportunities for success. Provide meaningful learning tasks that leverage student strengths and use existing funds of knowledge.

Alternative Assignments

- * start small to build teacher competency
- * limit access initially based on class need
- * open access with increased teacher competency
- * slowly build a library of alternate assessments
 - * include student contributions